MAKING A DIFFERENCE, IT'S SECOND NATURE

Nestled in the historic heart of West London, Greenford Quay is a meticulously landscaped development where apartment buildings elegantly span the Grand Union Canal, seamlessly uniting the allure of the city with the tranquillity of the countryside. This secure, welcoming, and eco-conscious community effortlessly blends urban sophistication and rural charm, creating a harmonious living experience.

Conveniently located within walking distance of Greenford (Central Line and National Rail), Sudbury Hill (Piccadilly Line), and Sudbury Hill Harrow (National Rail) stations, reaching Zone 1 takes under 20 minutes. The perfect location for commuting and exploring - discover life's vibrancy.

The Glassworks is the centrepiece of Greenford Quay. A place to relax and be yourself, where fresh homely interiors connect with landscaped gardens and waterfront views. Whatever your rhythm, it's all second nature. Furnished impeccably with comfortably, stylish furniture creates a unique home - yours to personalise!

There are two furniture collections at The Glassworks, which will depend on which apartment type and floor level you choose. Both offering a unique collection, tailored to your needs.

Your Greenford Quay team can help you select your perfect apartment. With the help of Kibre, Greenford Quay are offering you a slice of paradise.
