JUST LAUNCHED: GQ CLUB FOR PROFESSIONALS
The GQ Club - launched in May 2022 - is a new free networking programme onsite at Tillermans Court to facilitate connections for local professionals, entrepreneurs, and freelancers with business founders and leaders to build skills necessary for personal and professional development. Exploring key topics such as Diversity, Brand, Impact, and more, this programme aims to help members in the local area and beyond build a community, make connections, network, and have fun. PLAN YOUR Summer Series AGENDA

Greenford Quay presents another fun-packed Summer Series with free events open to all.

Thursday Night Live is back to kick off the series, showcasing Ealing's best musical talents and the hottest comedy acts from across the borough.

Great titles celebrating heritage and culture through film have been selected for our Summer Screenings - direct from our outdoor amphitheatre in August. And finally, our first-ever Canal Festival will close out the series on Saturday, August 27 2022. So join us by the canal for boat trips, kayaking, and soak up even MORE entertainment.

Keep an eye on our Events and Social pages to keep up to date throughout the season.

Introducing Street Food Saturdays

We are delighted to announce we are in cahoots with popular Ealing Marketeers, Jody and Amanda from the Trash & Treasure street food crew, to launch Street Food Saturdays at Greenford Quay.

So grab the family and join us every first Saturday of the month until September, at Tillermans Court for great food from independent local food traders. We'll have a fully licensed 'Mini Bar' (from a 1992 Classic Rover Mini Cooper) serving craft beers on tap, spirits, and wine. Plus garden games, face painting, and a disco gazebo for the little ones.

For regular updates each month, visit: www.trashandtreasuremarkets.com or follow @trashandtreasuremarkets on Facebook and Instagram!

Spotlight

Senior Community Manager George Ahye joins the team to work with the growing Greenford Quay neighbourhood.

The Greenford Quay team wish Dan all the best in his new community and role, as this changing event has taken him out of Greenford as his work-life balance needed a shift. Meet Senior Community Manager George Ahye, onsite to continue the great work.

Congratulations to Dan Collins, Assistant Community Manager on the significant and exciting life milestone of becoming a father.

Joining the Greenford Quay team as Senior Community Manager in April 2022 was an easy decision because I have several years of experience in managing purpose-built rental housing.

My role covers both Tillermans Court and Lyons Dock and will expand with the development. Since joining, my favourite thing about my role is meeting local residents. Today, the Greenford Quay team is working to build on the excellent foundations set for community living.

When I'm not onsite at Greenford Quay, you'll find me keeping active by playing football, going to the gym, and getting involved in the occasional adrenaline-filled activities like skydiving.

Inside Lyons Dock

Greenford Quay's Lyons Dock, set along the Grand Union Canal, is now available for residents to move from June 2022. Residents will start to see the remaining scaffolding surrounding the building removed over the next few months to open up the development. Take a look at the airy luxe design of Lyons Dock, inspired by the now lost historic stately homes of Greenford:
